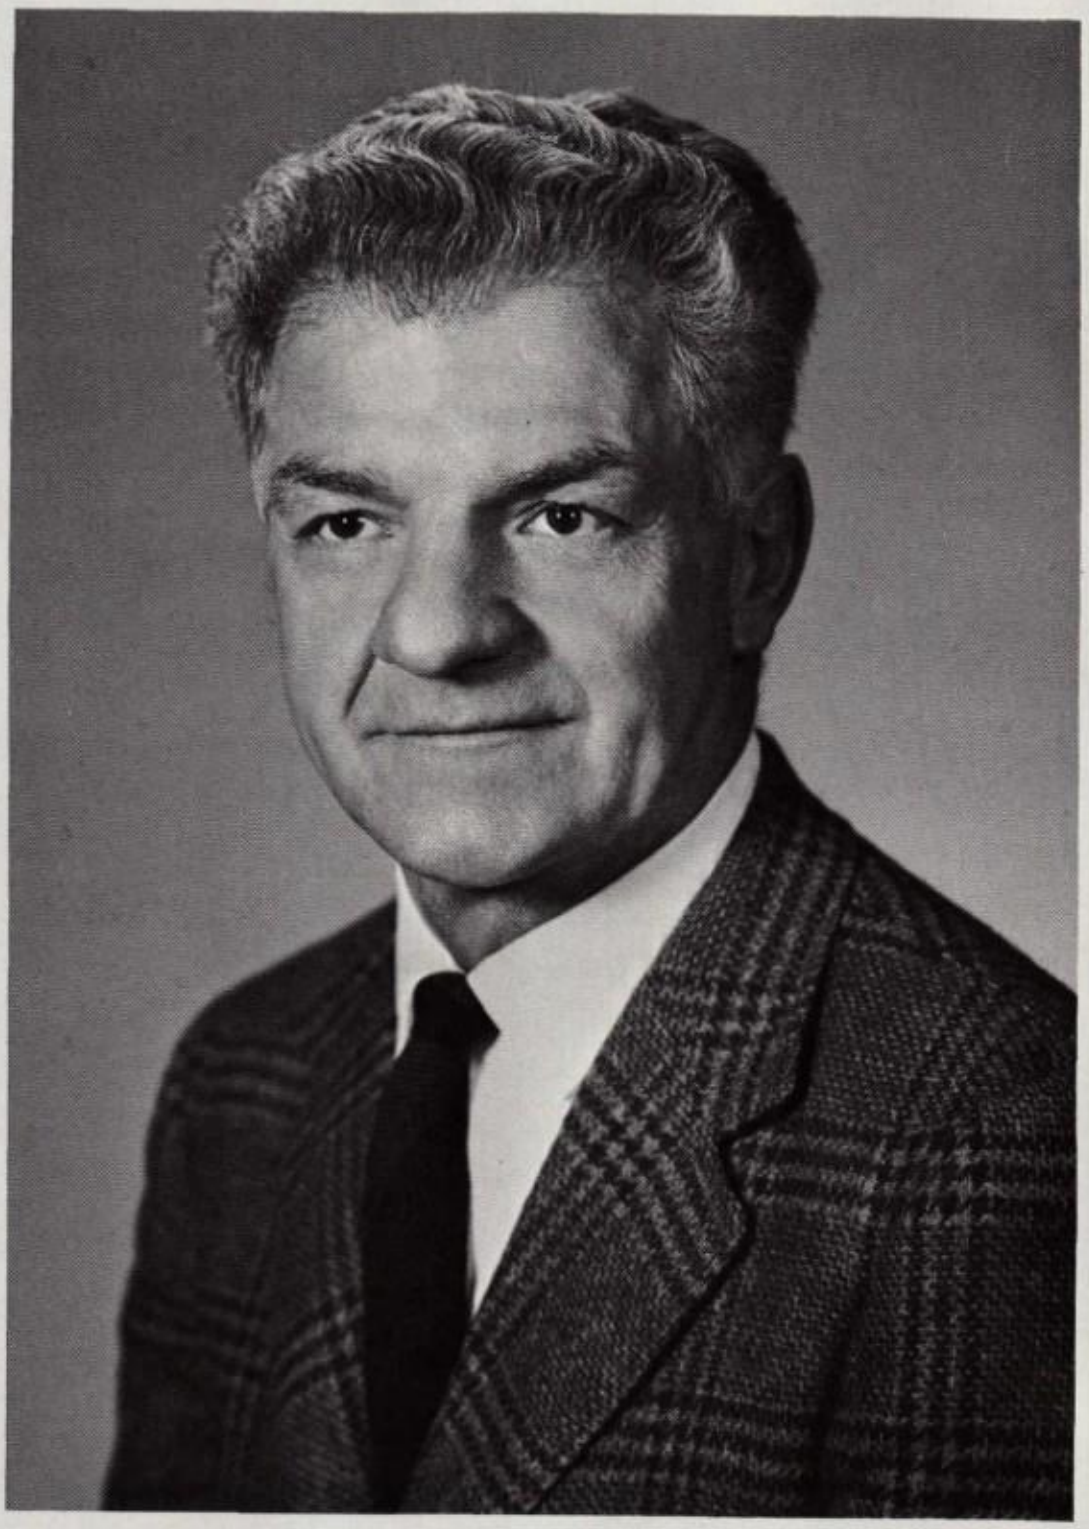
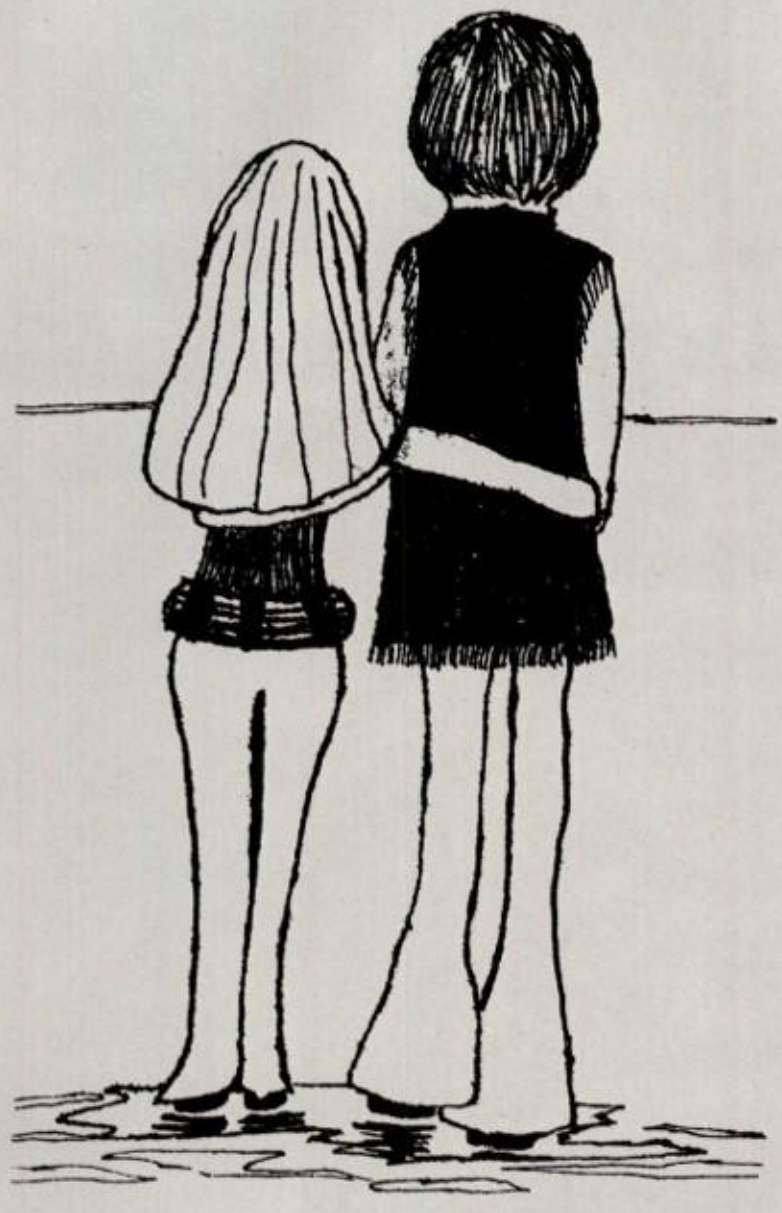
Dedication



We, the SENIOR CLASS OF 1970 dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Gerald Gray, who has been teaching at Lynd High School for the past three years. Mr. Gray is one of the most highly respected and well-liked of all the teachers at Lynd. Besides teaching Social Studies and Physical Education, Mr. Gray has coached Track and Football. Everyone at Lynd High School is grateful to Mr. Gray for devoting his time and energies toward helping Lynd become a better and more outstanding school.



Foreword

Come on people now smile on your brother. Everybody get together try to love one another right now.

You can make the mountains ring or make the angels cry. Though the bird is on the wing, and you may not know why.

Some will come and some will go but we shall surely pass. When the one that left us here returns for us at last. We are but a moments sun-light fading in the grass.

You hold the key to love and fear all in your trembling hand. There's just one key unlocks them both. It's there at your command.

It's the only hope for humanity.

Come on people now smile on your brother. Everybody get together try to love one another right now.

Superintendent

Mr. Trushenski

First of all, I want to congratulate the Senior Class of 1970 for the excellent annual that is now being produced. In reviewing this past school year, one would have to admit that it was a year of many ups and downs, but there were more ups than downs---that is how progress is made. Our school has been upgraded as we all know. Mr. Edmund C. Lee of the State Department was highly pleased with the progress that has been made at the Lynd School this year. But more needs to be done. This calls for the co-operation of us all. Students must do their part. The faculty must do their job as it should be done. The parents, too, must get into the act and promote all causes that upgrade and improve our school. So let us all start working for a better school. The Lynd school may be small, but it has the potential of doing great things.

Principal

The belief in the worth and importance of the individual is fundamental (in a democratic society) regardless of race, creed, or ability. This is one of the treasured heritages of our American society. Schools are responsible for passing this heritage on to their students.

In order to import an appreciation for moral and spiritual values to the youth of the nation, it is the responsibility of school people to represent by their own example the good practices of our democratic heritege. Through this example, the finest educational situation may result.

Kindergarten

If a child lives with criticism he learns to condemn.
If a child lives with hostility he learns to fight.
If a child lives with fear he learns to be apprehensive.
If a child lives with pity he learns to feel sorry for himself.
If a child lives with jealousy he learns to hate.

If a child lives with encouragement he learns to be confident.
If a child lives with praise he learns to be appreciative.
If a child lives with acceptance he learns to love.
If a child lives with approval he learns to like himself.
If a child lives with recognition he learns justice.

If a child lives with honesty he learns what truth is.
If a child lives with friendliness he learns that the world is a nice place in which to live.

Pep Club

The first reason I came to the United States was to be myself and to be more responsible and to improve my English. I had my choice of going to other countries such as the countries in Europe or other countries in South America, but I chose the United States because it is much more advanced than other countries.

I had a very difficult time getting used to the language. I could not get used to the cold weather at first. I had never seen snow before and had much fun snowmobiling. I am glad that it is spring and it is finally warming.

I liked my stay here very much and would like to come back to the United States in August of 1971.

Football

Let's Go!

Seniors, Freshmen, and a thin line of Sophmores and Juniors made up this years Panther Squad which managed three wins, three loses, and a tie. Defeating Milroy, last years conference titlists, which boasted ten returning lettermen, along with sound victories over Echo and Ruthton, were the high-points of the season.

Playing their last season for the Panthers and veterans of four years of competition were Duane Wilmes and Dave DeBaere. Other Seniors were Roger Wing and Rick Sanow. Transferring from Tracy and assisting greatly with his versatility was captain Rick Sanow. These Seniors will be missed greatly next year, and the Panthers will be relying on Sophmores for whatever success they may have.

"Hillbilly Wedding"

"Hillbilly Wedding", a three act comedy, is about a family of hillbillies. Juney Lou wants to get married, but Maw says nothing doing until the two oldest girls, Bonnie Mae and Ceelie, are married. There is plenty of fun and lots of excitement when Paw used his gun to capture husbands for Ceelie and Bonnie Mae.

H-H-H-H-Howdy, Paw Belsnickle!

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here in the presence of God ....

Homecoming

1969 Homecoming Festivities began Thursday evening with a snake dance, bon fire, and pep fest. During the pep fest, Coach Gray, and Queen Candidates plus attendents gave pep talks.

Friday morning finishing touches were made on floats, to make ready for the parade at 1:00 pm. The parade consisted of five floats and the grade school children.

The afternoon contest was a tough one with the Panthers finally going down to a defeat at the hands of the Russell Bulldogs. At half time of the game the attendants and candidates paraded around the field while the Russell band performed.

That evening Sue McChesney was crowned 1969 Homecoming Queen.

Junior-Senior Prom

"Isle of Golden Dreams" provided a Hawaiian setting for the Junior-Senior Prom May 16.

The decorations of sapphire blue and ice blue streamers encircled a Hawaiian horizon with fountains and palm trees.

The band, "Pandoras' Box," played "All I Have To Do Is Dream" as the grand march theme song.

At the banquet guests were welcomed by Marlene Luttmer on behalf of the Junior Class. Duane Wilmes gave the response and Janet Cady presented the class will. The prophecy was read by Carol Kor.

Throwing coins into the fountain were AFU Student Ellie Comargo from Brazilia, Brazil and her escort Roger Wing.

The class officers receiving punch from the class advisors.
